FACTS AND SUGGESTIONS.

The political situation in Colorado is precisely the same as in Nevada. There are arrayed on one side the ex-Federal office-holders who cling to Cleveland with the hope of being allotted their old places, or mayhap better ones, at the public crib in the event of his election; the present Federal brigade, which, of course, is doing all in its power for the individual who controls the spoils; a few bigoted partisans, who never see anything wrong inside the party lines nor anything right beyond them, and the timid, who fear the party lash and are kept in the traces by the threats of the bosses, and the masses of the people, who expect no Government favors on the other. All, with scarce an exception, claim to be silver men, yet the spoils-men, in the face of the fact that the platforms of the Republican and Democratic parties are against free coinage, advocate the election of either Harrison or Cleveland, while the masses of the people, the true, real friends of silver, are for Weaver, who is the only free coinage Presidential candidate in the field.

In Colorado as in Nevada the nomination of Cleveland and Harrison on anti-silver platforms, the defeat of the Stewart bill and the determination of the goldbugs to prevent the remonetization of silver have combined to compel unity of council and action on the part of those who would maintain the industries and prosperity of the country in general, and of the mining States in particular. The State Silver League has therefore called a convention to meet in Denver next Tuesday. The Denver News, the largest and most influential newspaper west of Chicago, alluding to this convention, says "that the old parties, as at present dominated, are hostile to silver is a fact too well demonstrated to need argument. Silver men must face the fact and act accordingly. They cannot affiliate politically with the enemies of silver and still be free coinage men. A vote for Harrison or Cleveland is a vote to place in the Presidential chair a man pledged by platform to veto the free coinage bill. Recognizing this fact the silver men must act independently of old parties and do what is deemed best for the great industry of the State. It is evident that the stringency of the money market caused by the demonetization of one of the money metals of the world is the cause of the social and political discontent now so general. All free coinage men, whether merchants, professional men, miners, farmers or laborers, are joining in Colorado, as in Nevada, in one solid voting phalanx against the arrogance of the Wall Street millionaires. The News tells its readers to bear in mind that this fight for silver, which is a fight for our homes and industries, may not be ended in one campaign, or in one year. The present canvass may be only the beginning of a long and persistent contest in behalf of the rights of the people. So thoroughly entrenched are the hosts of monopoly and monopolism that it will require a bold and determined effort to dislodge them from their places of power and restore the Government once more to its original design—a Government by the people and for the people, not by the few and for the few, and those few the plutocrats of the nation. Keeping these facts in view, let the people strike out boldly for the rights of silver, and making common cause with all of silver's friends fight the good cause to a triumphant finish.

The White Pine News, at the instance of a friend, proposes that a fund of $10,000 be raised by dollar subscriptions for the widow of the late G. W. Cassidy, who, it appears, was left almost destitute. What the News says on the subject, and we believe it covers the whole ground, is printed elsewhere in this paper. The Journal suggests that Richard Ryland, Esq., who is a friend of Mrs. Cassidy, act as local treasurer. All contributions received by him will be acknowledged in the papers.

The political composition of the Oregon Legislature is as follows: House—39 Republicans, 18 Democrats, 8 People's party; Senate—16 Republicans, 11 Democrats, 1 Democrat and Provisionalist, 1 People's party and 1 Citizens'. The Democrats gain one in the Senate and lose one in the House over last Legislature. The Republicans lose nine, of which seven are in the Senate and two in the House.

H. C. FRICK SHOT

By a Russian Jew Known to be a Pronounced Anarchist.

PITTSBURGH, July 23.—At two this afternoon H. C. Frick, manager of the Carnegie Company, was shot by a man named Alexander Berkman. He is 21 years of age and lives here. He is a Russian Jew and a supposed anarchist. He has been hanging around the office for several days. A boy noticed the man come in hurriedly from the outside and pass through the railing, but before he could stop him the stranger had entered the private office. He sprang to within about five feet of Frick and quickly drawing a revolver pulled the trigger. The first cartridge did not explode, but the second shot, entering the back of Frick's neck, glanced downward and passed out below the arm pit. Frick jumped to a window on Fifth avenue and tried to open it but couldn't. Berkman rushed up to him and again fired, the ball entering the left side of his neck and passing around to a lodgment under the right ear.

At this moment Mr. Leishman threw himself on the assassin and struggled to get the revolver. He clutched the barrel and turned the muzzle as the man pulled the trigger again, the ball entering their ceiling. The desperate man then drew a dagger and attempted to stab Leishman. Frick saw the gleam of steel and, although staggered by the shock of his wounds and bleeding profusely, jumped between the man and seized Berkman's arm. The latter freed himself from Leishman's grasp and plunged the dagger into Frick's right side just above the hip, making an ugly wound three inches long. He made another lunge and this time the knife struck higher up, but the point struck a rib and glanced without inflicting much injury. Twice again was the knife thrust at Frick, but he was merely scratched. By this time the office clerks and Deputy Sheriff May entered. May had a drawn revolver and was about to shoot Berkman in the back when Frick cried out, "Don't kill him; we've got him all right. Leave him to the law." The man broke away and tried to escape, but was secured and taken to the station.

In five minutes half a dozen surgeons were on hand and Frick's wounds were quickly attended to. He was calm, had perfect command of his faculties and apparently was less excited than any other person in the room. From time to time he made suggestions and half an hour after the shooting dictated a message to Andrew Carnegie, about the assassin. At his request all communication with his residence was shut off and his brother-in-law sent to inform his wife and to reassure her. She gave birth to a child ten days ago and is still confined to her room, but though greatly distressed, bore herself bravely. After considerable difficulty the bullet lodged in his neck was removed and Frick was soon resting easier. The news created intense excitement and telegrams poured in on Frick from people high and low, from various parts of the country. At no time did he express fear as to his condition and after the removal of the bullet dictated a letter to his stenographer and received reports about the condition of affairs at Homestead.

New York, July 23.—If the man looked up in Pittsburgh for an attempt to murder H. C. Frick is Alexander Berkman, formerly of this city. He is an Anarchist of the most radical style. About six years ago, Berkman, who is a Russian Jew, came to this city from Wilna, Russia. He made himself conspicuous by his marked radical views against capitalists and, it is said, attempted to organize a group for the express purpose of going about the country to exterminate capitalists. In 1891 he secured a position in the composing room of the Treibler, Most's paper, where he worked a short time. He has been idle about Anarchist haunts in this city for some time. The police are of the opinion that Berkman was simply an agent of the Anarchists here and was sent to Pittsburgh for the express purpose of killing Frick. Detectives are working on the matter at this end.

Declared a Nuisance.

PHOENIX, Arizona, July 23.—The members of the Philharmonic Band, a new organization, were arrested to-day on a charge of maintaining a nuisance. Their music disturbed certain people, and the City Recorder caused their arrest.

Grasshopper Scourge.

PHOENIX, Arizona, July 23.—The grasshoppers have destroyed the corn and vegetation of all kinds in Williamson Valley, sixteen miles northwest of Prescott. There are swarms of them, like in Kansas in 1876, the first in Arizona for years.

House Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—There was a lively scene this morning in the House just before assembling and John Devlin of the Executive Committee of the Knights of Labor came near getting a good blow from General Oates, the one-armed Confederate veteran and at present the Chairman of the Special Committee which is investigating the Homestead trouble and Pinkerton system.

The trouble grew out of criticisms made by Devlin on the conduct of yesterday's examination of the Pinkertons, and examinations that the adjournment of the committee taken to enable the members to vote on the Deficiency Appropriation bill had actually been taken to give the Pinkertons time to prime themselves with answers to the questions propounded by the Knights of Labor. His manner, as well as his words, offended General Oates, who told him the committee had treated him and his associates with extraordinary consideration, having given their questions precedence over those of the committee and that his criticism now was improper and impertinent. More words followed and Oates told Devlin he might go to hell.

Devlin again charged the committee with taking a recess at the instance of the Pinkertons.

Oates retorted by saying Devlin was a damned liar.

The two men were about to come to blows when members interposed.

Explosion in a Colliery.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., July 23.—There was an explosion of gas in the New York farm colliery this morning. Nine are known to be killed; three are missing and probably dead. At least ten are badly burned and some will die.

The explosion was caused by the gas feeder being broken into and ignited by a lamp. The explosion was terrific and completely closed the gangway, shutting in a number of men besides those known to be killed.

The tunnel and gangways in different directions are filled up with debris and it will take many days to clear it away. Workmen in distant parts of the mine say the noise and force of the explosion was terrible.

Men five hundred yards away were thrown to the ground. As soon as an entrance could be made to the mine a rescue party was set to work.

The first brought to the surface were the injured, preparations for whose care had been made. The body of Thomas Jones of Minersville, was brought to the surface at 5:30 and it is expected his companions, Harrison and Hartzell, will be reached in a few hours. Henry Madara, another of the injured, died this evening.

Senate Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The debate involving the question of specific contracts being payable in gold was precipitated in the Senate to-day in an unexpected manner and continued until crowded out by the anti-Opioid bill.

Just before adjournment Friday unanimous consent was given to have the House bill in regard to judgments in United States Courts taken up and acted on during the morning hour to-day. The fact was overlooked that on a previous occasion the bill had been before the Senate and an amendment offered to it by Teller was still pending, making such judgments payable in legal tender money even though the contract stipulated for payment in gold. The amendment was strenuously opposed by Sherman and Higgins and advocated by Palmer, Morgan and Turpie. When the morning hour expired the bill and amendment went over without action. The anti-Opioid bill occupied the attention of the Senate during the rest of the afternoon.

Fatal Stage Accident.

TILLAMOOK, Or., July 23.—Last night the mail stage on the Tillamook and North Yamhill toll road went through a bridge across the North Trask river, falling thirty feet into a raging current among the rocks below. C. B. Hadley of Tillamook and Rev. Edmunds of Iowa, passengers, and Willens Maddox, the driver, were all terribly injured. It is thought they cannot recover.

From "Pirate" to "Columbia"

WASHINGTON, July 23.—Secretary Tracy to-day directed that the triple screw steamer No. 12, heretofore known as the "Pirate" be named "Columbia." This is in recognition of the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America, of the seat of our government and the Capital of the State of South Carolina.

Enginesmen Are Slow.

Trains are not so punctual as in the United States. The enormous traffic has something to do with this, but I am told that the fault is somewhat due to faulty organization; that in fact the engine department is too entirely distinct from the conductor's department. There is not on the engineer any great responsibility for being on time, but there is on him an immense care that his engine shall show economical use of coal, water, oil, etc. By such return he is judged, and he is busy running an economical engine while the passengers chafe and the conductor is placidly sitting in the "guard-van," for he has no responsibility either for time. If a station master sends the train off five minutes late, it is nobody's business to make it up, and it is not made up.—London Cor. San Francisco Chronicle.

Miss Sybil Sanderson, daughter of Judge Sanderson, of San Francisco, is the only soprano in the world who makes higher tones than Patti. She is a tall, willowy girl, with a throat like a white pillar, gold blond hair and black eyes.

Soon the frow and the laugh laugh of the untidy, unwholesome and altogether unsuitable pavement will be gone and, to whisper a secret, nobody will be quite so glad as the woman who wore it.—Exchange.

The wife of John Delano, of the London Times, suggested the obituary column of which her husband playfully allowed her the income that finally grew to an imposing sum.

Yesterday's Races.

Quite a number attended the track yesterday to witness the races, among the crowd being quite a number of ladies. The Juvenile Band was present and rendered good music, relieving the monotony of waiting between heats and giving more of a holiday air to the occasion. Nearly every one had money to bet, but the general opinion was the same as to winners, consequently very little money was wagered.

The first race on the program was between Frenchy and Little Jim, both pacers, and Robert L. Little Jim won the first heat by a neck in 2:38 1/2, Frenchy second.

The second heat was won by Frenchy in 2:35, Robert L. second. The finish was very close, Frenchy winning by a head.

While the horses were being warmed up for the third heat Robert L. suddenly wheeled while Frenchy was passing him and threw the driver and owner, Mr. Newman, out of the sulky and overturned the vehicle. Mr. Newman held the lines and succeeded in getting to the horse's head and quieting him before any more serious damage was done than a bent axle and slightly scratching the horse on one hind leg. The horse was withdrawn from the race and it was finished by Frenchy and Little Jim. Frenchy won the heat and race in 2:36; Little Jim a close second.

The next event was the 3-minute class, with the following entries: N. B. Flora H. and Anteo, Jr.

Anteo, Jr., won the first heat, Flora H. second. Time, 2:57.

The second heat was won by Anteo, Jr., Flora H. second, N. B. third. Time, 2:55 1/2. The race and money was awarded to Anteo, Jr.

The third was a stallion race between Tropico, Nevada Volunteer and Benedic Boy, and was won in two straight heats by Tropico. Time, 3:08 and 3:01.

GENERAL WEAVER'S OPINION.

In a private letter to the editor of the Silver State, General Weaver says: "I think the demonetization of silver constitutes one of the most wicked and brutal crimes ever committed against modern civilization, and the people must rebuke it with all their power and thus vindicate their right to self-government and the respect of mankind. I shall leave no stone unturned to bring the campaign to a successful termination."

If the Wall Street candidates had the manliness to express their opinions as forcibly and unequivocally against the crime of 1873 there would be no occasion for a Silver ticket, but had they done so Wall Street would not have nominated them.

The Enterprise says the barn belonging to the "Windmill House," which stands at the intersection of the steamboat roads at the foot of the Geiger grade caught fire in some mysterious manner last Friday, and with it contents was destroyed. There were a number of sheep and hogs and a dog and calf looked in the building, which perished in the flames. The loss is said to be about $5,000.

Be Sure

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other."

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself not getting it sooner. My friends frequently speak of it. Mrs. ELLA A. LARGE RETURNS FOR A SMALL INVESTMENT IS THE RESULT WHEN YOU BUY Seal OF NORTH CAROLINA

"I can't bear a Pipe," was an expression that a few years ago was very often used by smokers, and with good reason too. As manufacturers had not learned that to make good smoking tobacco great care and judgment were required.

The "Seal of North Carolina" changed all this, it jumped into popular favor from the start; it was not a "fancy tobacco," but was made with one object; that was, to give the smoker a good cool reliable tobacco, at a reasonable price. The "Seal" has hit the popular taste, hence its success.

Seal of North Carolina is now packed in Patent Cloth Pouches, as well as in Felt.

The Board of Directors met on the 12th of July and made an examination of the bank's business and sent to each stockholder a printed statement of the result of their examination and the cashier has received a number of letters from the stockholders commenting on the splendid showing made.

The Spleen

—not the ill-humor you feel like venting upon some offender, but the spleen near the stomach, which supplies the proper amount of blood to the stomach during digestion. But both are affected by a torpid liver. A torpid liver excites the spleen (ill-humor) and destroys the bodily organs; but an active liver, promoted by Simmons' Liver Regulator, destroys the spleen (ill-humor) and excites to right action the digestive powers—then no more dyspepsia, constipation or biliousness.

WHAT ARE THEY DOING?

Some Suggestions From a Free Coinage Republican.

EDITOR NEVADA STATE JOURNAL:—What are the Silver Leagues of Washoe county doing?

I have had the above question propounded to me many times during the last few weeks, and until recently I have answered that they were waiting the action of Congress on the Stewart Free Coinage bill, but now when the question is asked I am at a loss to know what answer to make. The two great political parties, Democratic and Republican, have met in National Conventions, and have nominated through the assistance and by the dictation of the goldbugs of London and Wall Street, candidates for President and Vice President, who are openly and unequivocally opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, who are in fact antithetical to the use of the white metal at all.

Congress has acted on the free coinage bill and the result is known to all.

While the industries and products of all other States have been fully protected by National legislation, the principal product of this State, the product which was so liberally contributed to the support of the Government during its financial embarrassment and which so materially aided it in resuming specie payment of its liabilities and upon which, alone we may safely say, depends the prosperity and in fact the perpetuation of our existence as a State, has been wholly ignored and the rights of our citizens wholly disregarded.

When we review the acts of the two dominant parties during the last nineteen years, since the demonetization of silver it does not require a prophet or the son of a prophet to foresee and declare with certainty that no relief will come to this and other silver producing States, from either of them, but on the contrary that our financial condition will become worse and worse from year to year, and that eventually we will be compelled to abandon our homes, which we have been working to build up for over a quarter of a century, and leave one of the best countries on the face of God's green earth, to the undisputed possession of the coyote and jack rabbit.

John Sherman, the arch-enemy of silver, since he has succeeded in defeating the passage of the free coinage bill, has the audacity to introduce a bill to repeal the Act directing the Secretary of the Treasury to purchase four million five hundred thousand ounces of silver bullion per month, and stop the coinage of silver altogether.

I have too much faith in the people of Nevada to believe that they will quietly submit longer to such flagrant outrages as have imposed upon them for the last fifteen years, but that they will unite and come forward as free and intelligent American citizens determined to assert and defend their rights and say in thunder tones to those usurpers, "stop, before you further go."

We cannot defeat their hellish design by submission. They have forced the fight upon us and we must make it. I never knew a battle to be won by surrendering before the fight commenced.

It is quite evident that the only thing left for the silver men of this and other silver producing States is to unite and thoroughly organize and declare by our votes on the 8th day of November next that we repudiate not only the candidates nominated by the Democratic and Republican parties, but that we regard with scorn and contempt the late action of the lower House of Congress on the free coinage bill.

Now, Mr. Editor, I will suggest that a County Central Committee be appointed consisting of good, reliable, straight, uncompromising silver men, and that every precinct in Washoe county have a representative on such committee; then the silver party of Washoe will be in condition to organize and do effective work and in a short time every silver man in the county will know what is going to be done. As procrastination is the thief of time, I am of the opinion this ought to be done as soon as possible.

Race Track Improvements.

While at the race track yesterday a JOURNAL reporter took occasion to ascertain what alterations and improvements are being made on and about the grand stand. One of the most convenient improvements is two ladies' dressing rooms up stairs, and two flights of stairs leading to the top of the grand stand and to the dressing rooms from the back of the grand stand. There is also a wide flight of stairs in front of and in the center of the grand stand. The building has been extended 10 feet in front allowing five additional rows of seats, increasing the seating capacity of the stand about 1,000. A nice club room will be added at the north end, a wine room at the center and a private dining room at the south end.

New ceiling has already been put over the bar, and other improvements made. When the work is finished it will make as convenient and substantial a building as any of the kind on the Pacific Coast. Mr. J. Curtis is superintending the work and has four or five men at work. Mr. Curtis expects to complete everything by the first of August.

A FUND FOR MRS. CASSIDY.

One Big Silver Dollar From Every Man In Nevada.

White Pine News.

A gentleman from the western part of the State called at the News office a few days ago, and during a conversation on general matters the subject of the sudden death of Hon. Geo. W. Cassidy came up. Our friend from the West told us the saddest feature about his death was that his widow was left penniless. Mr. Cassidy having no insurance on his life. Our friend intimated that it would be a graceful and grateful act for the people of Nevada to raise a fund by public subscription for the widow, and asked the editor of the News if he would take the initiative in the matter and start a subscription list.

We told our friend from the West that his ideas were good and we heartily approved of his plan, but thought it were better to start the movement in a more central and populous locality, but he insisted we should take the initiative and start the subscription.

Before laying our plan for raising the fund before the public it is in place to say that Mr. Cassidy in his life time was a generous, open-hearted man, always ready with purse and pen to contribute to, every good work. He was the ablest champion of the miner, the mechanic and the working class generally the State ever had. His voice, pen and press was ever ready to uphold the right and condemn the wrong, even when it was financial loss to the paper he conducted. No one knows all this better than the brethren of the press of Nevada, and to them we would submit the plan for raising a fund for the widow.

One big silver dollar from every man in the State who can afford and never miss it would make a fund of $10,000, which would place the widow beyond present or future want. This would be a practical way of showing our appreciation of the worth and esteem in which we hold our departed friend and fellow citizen. We believe there is not a man in Nevada who would not cheerfully give a dollar to such a fund.

Now, our plan is this: We would ask every newspaper in the State to act as solicitor and local treasurer for the fund.

We would suggest that George S. Nixon of the Silver State and cashier of the First National Bank of Winnemucca, act as general treasurer, to whom local treasurers will report and remit.

What say our brethren of the press? Will you take hold and second our effort in a most worthy cause? We feel confident you will.

The first dollar towards the fund has been placed in our hands by C. J. Boskowitz of San Francisco.

THE S. F. AND G. S. L. R. M.

The Subscription List Will Be Opened Next Week.

The San Francisco Bulletin of Friday says: It is semi-officially said that the subscription list for shares in the San Francisco and Great Salt Lake Railway will probably be opened next week. No further facts are given in reference to the list yet. It is, however, well known that the committee in charge of the enterprise continues to add to its membership and all the new members are subscribing to the stock.

FAITH IN THE ENTERPRISE.

There will probably be fifty members of the committee who have shown their faith in the enterprise by large subscriptions before the public is invited to take action to help build the road. Those who have interested themselves in the work from the first seem more and more sanguine. Mr. Kennedy, the engineer who has the field work in charge, was in the city yesterday and called on several of the railroad projectors and advisers. An attempt was made to interview Mr. Kennedy, but the engineer refused to talk about the progress made, about the lines ran, or, in fact, about the field work in any way. The same care is manifested by all who are concerned in the road-building project. This is why so little definite information appears in the daily press concerning progress. When the subscriptions are opened the capitalists of the interior, as well as those of the city, will have a chance to take part in the enterprise. Already certain persons of considerable wealth have expressed a desire to take hold. One person said that he would take $50,000 worth of the stock because he thought that a road of the sort projected would increase the value of his landholdings at least $100,000. The heading of the subscription list with the gross amount already subscribed will be of interest to the public when it is given out next week.

BRIGHT OUTLOOK FOR THE ROAD.

The present local traffic that a road by the proposed route through Butte and Plumas counties would be able to control is a matter that is now being closely looked into. Within the past few weeks the projectors of the road have been put in possession of many facts and figures that show very favorably the paying character of the country through which the road would pass in following the North Fork route between Oroville and Beekwith Pass.

Merchants' Retail Commercial Agency.

Last evening quite a number of the merchants and representative business men of Reno met at Thompson's Hall for the purpose of organizing what is known as the Reno Branch of the Merchants' Retail Commercial Agency. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: John Sunderland, President; L. D. Folsom, Vice President; W. A. Fogg, Secretary; L. N. Bakesess, Treasurer. The Executive Board consists of Henry Berry, Charles Gullings, A. H. Manning, Sol Levy and J. B. McCullough. The organization is of national extent, having branch offices in all the prominent cities and towns of the United States. The general office is located at Chicago, Ill. The object of the organization is to protect men engaged in business from consumers who make a practice of living at the expense of merchants generally, and is based on a thorough system of mutual protection to its members. The organization starts off with the names of nearly all the prominent business men of Reno on its list.

THE COLORS OF WATER.

A Simple Object Lesson That Proved Interesting to a Child.

"Is it not true, grandpa, that water has no color?"

"Yes, dear child, it is blue, but so little so that you cannot see it."

"Can you see that it is blue?"

"No, but still it is blue. Look at this."

I took a little ultramarine on the end of the brush and mixed it with water.

"Does it look blue now?"

"No; I see nothing."

"Nor I. But you saw how I put a little blue color in it with the brush."

"Yes, but there was not enough of it. Put more in."

I silently took the glass and set it on a piece of white paper in the bright sunshine.

"Now look from above down into it."

"It is blue," said the little one, clapping her hands, "but only a very little."

"Look at it from the other side, where the sun is shining into it. Is it not a little bit red, like the bell flowers which you picked yesterday?"

"That is wonderful," said the little one. "It is blue from above, a little bit red in the sun, and when we look at it from this side of the room we see nothing."

"Think about it a little. The glass is as broad as my finger is long. But it is at least three times as high as my finger. When you look at it from the side, you see only a finger's length of water; but when you look down into it, you see through three fingers' length of water—three times as much. You see it blue from the side, and three times as blue from above, don't you?"

"Is that really true?" said the little one, as she measured with her finger. She nodded that she was satisfied.

"Now imagine that the water is as deep as the height of the church steeple, and deep—just that it reaches from here up into Solvan and down to Vornayaz. Then you would see the water from above above it all blue."

"Is the lake, then, really so deep?"

"Yes, and deeper."

I will not continue the conversation any longer. It went on with various simple experiments, beginning with differently colored stones, which I let drop into the water, and then placed on the white, then with setting the glass with its weakly bluish contents on differently colored papers, and ended with my trying to make the children perceive how the colors changed when they were seen through the whole depth of the glass. I will not say that the little ones were brought to a full comprehension of the matter, but they stuck fast to the assertion that water is blue, of an infinitely weak blue, and that the blue color cannot be seen till one looks into a certain depth of it.—Carl Vogt in Popular Science Monthly.

Remarkable Restoration.

An Albany dispatch says: "In July 1888, the hunko artist, John Price, now serving a nineteen year sentence at Dannemora, slipped up behind P. K. Deidrick just as he left his carriage on the front of the Farmers and Mechanics bank and extracted from the seat a package containing $35,000 in negotiable bonds. A few days ago the bonds were received by ex-District Attorney Hugh Reilly. The package was intact, and the accumulated interest makes them worth about $40,000. There is no clue to whence they came, except that they were sent from New York city. The mystery lies in the fact that they were returned at all, as they were negotiable."

Columbus Was Not the First.

It was at Lisbon that Columbus first planned his voyage. But long before, when Lisbon was a flourishing Arab city, intelligent and splendid, Edrisi relates that an expedition was sent out from its port to explore the dark and unknown ocean. The commanders were brothers known as the Almagrauras, or the Wanderers. They must have set sail before the year 1100. They crossed the Atlantic, it is said, visited unknown islands and discovered new lands. After a weary voyage of many months they returned in safety. A street was named after them in Moorish Lisbon, called the street of the Almagrauras.—Eugene Lawrence in Harper's.

Possibly the attempt might have been renewed, and a Moorish city might have sprung up in Cuba or Hispaniola, at Philadelphia or New York. But soon he conquering Christians took Lisbon and checked its advance in knowledge. For many centuries it was given up to war and chivalry. At length it revived the Moorish instincts of trade and commerce. Lisbon became the center of discovery, and Columbus learned in its traditions perhaps the story of the Almagrauras.—Eugene Lawrence in Harper's.

It was Mr. Emerson who said "The first wealth is health," and it was wise that the modern philosopher who said that, "the blood is the life." The system, like the clock, runs down. It needs winding up. The blood gets poor and scores of diseases result. It needs a tonic to enrich it.

A certain wise doctor, after years of patient study, discovered a medicine which purified the blood, gave tone to the system, and made man—lived, nervous, brain-wasting men—feel like new. He called it his "Golden-M-dical Discovery." It has been sold for years, sold by the millions of bottles, and people found such satisfaction in it that Dr. Plores who discovered it, now feels warranted in selling it under a positive guarantee of its doing good in all cases.

Perhaps it is the medicine for you. Your's world's the first case of scrofula or salt-rheum, skin disease or lung disease, it has cured when nothing else would. The trial's worth making, and costs nothing. Money refunded if it don't do you good.

"German Syrup"

A Cough For children a medicine should be absolutely reliable. A mother must be able to pin her faith to it as to her Bible. It must contain nothing violent, uncertain, or dangerous. It must be standard in material and manufacture. It must be plain and simple to administer; easy and pleasant to take. The child must like it. It must be prompt in action, giving immediate relief, as children's troubles come quick, grow fast, and end fatally or otherwise in a very short time. It must not only relieve quick but bring them around quick, as children chafe and fret and spoil their constitutions under long confinement. It must do its work in moderate doses. A large quantity of medicine in a child is not desirable. It must not interfere with the child's spirits, appetite or general health. These things suit old as well as young folks, and make Boschee's German Syrup the favorite family medicine.
